EDINBURGH, June 14. Mar Ledge at EDINBURGH, June 14. Mar Lodge at Braemer Aberdeenshire, the Highland residence of the Duke of Fife, son-in-law of the Prince of Wales, was burned to-day The fire broke out in the Duke's private room. Owing to the sear-lty of water the efforts to extinguish the flames were unsvalling. The fire spread to an adjacent wood, which at the time of sending this despatch is still burning. A great number of men are cutting down the trees to prevent the fire-communicating to the great ball room, and tennis court in he vicinity. Among those who witnessed the destruction of the ducal residence was Queen Victoria, who drove to the scene from Balmoral.

FAIT RIVER, June 4. The worst catastrophe that has visited the city since the gran te mill fire occurred this morning at the I angley. I own larness shops on County street.

A new botter of the kendail make exploided in the basem at of the two-story wooden building, blowing out the entire end of the building, knocking out the supports from the ent and causing the upper floor to settle into a mass of ruins.

There were 45 persons at work in the shop and only nine are known to have escapedalive. Among those were Henry J. Langley, the proprietor, George E. Davol, the foreman, and two gris named Champagus and Desrosters. I he flange communicated with the ruins and they began to burn priskly. Foremen rushed to the scene and made heroic chorts to rescue the imprisoned work people.

Shrieks from the Girls in the ruins we e mingled with the agon-livid cires of their friends, who had hurried to the scene when the first news of the catastrop he spired.

Ambulance calls were sent out and every physocian who could be reached and every physocian who could be reached.
